In C.I. SEASIF PACIFIC S.A.S, we are a company that seeks to promote the progress of the mining community in Colombia, through the international marketing of metal products and polymetallic concentrates. To do this, we have extensive experience, with investment in research and technology to improve purchasing processes, increase efficiency, diversify products, and achieve greater profitability, seeking to create strategic alliances with foreign companies to obtain better prices in the market. All the above, achieved through the appropriation of sustainable business practices and positive impact on mining communities, permanently contributing to productive projects and initiatives that strengthen and improve their quality of life.
